

So, you want to go to the Bahamas

What are the requirements to fly there?

Where are the best places to visit?

Which are the best places to stay?

When is the best time to go?

Are there any group flyins scheduled?

The answers to these and many more can be had from Mark Steinberg our ambasidor of Bahamas travel. Mark has been appointed to be a board member of the Bahamas Avation Council. This body is an advisory council to the avation regulatory agencies of the Bahamas. On the board sit representatives of Bahamian government, including customs, avation and tourism, airport owners and FBO operators , hotel owners and pilot representatives, which is his function.
